

Who is my mother? And who are my brethren?... whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Our family can never dissolve; it is the answer to all our hopes, the fulfillment of Christ's promise that, there is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospels, but he shall receive an hundredfold now in this present time, houses and brethren and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. (Mark 10:29-30).†

By Jesus Christ each one of us is freed from his narrow, lonely past, and we can finally see clearly that we are all one family, that we belong together; for NOW in Christ Jesus ye who were sometimes far off are made nigh by
