

the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us... Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God. (Eph. 2:13,14,19).

Our life together is a life of thanksgiving for having found each other, a simple life of faith and building, with Love as our guide; And they, continuing daily with one accord... and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. (Acts 2:46,47.)

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. (Psalms 133:1)

God has given us a beautiful way of life, free of strife, one body under Christ, where each member has a place, and we fit together perfectly: But now hath
