

Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying. (Prov. 19:18).
Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. (Prov. 22:15). For if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die. (Prov. 23:13). * He that spareth his rod hateth his son; but he that loveth him, chasteneth him betimes. (Prov.
13:24). We know it isn't always fun to be corrected, but it helps us and teaches us to do what is right. People who get their feelings hurt don't believe in Christ. The children of God simply change when they are admonished, because God is all around us and he knows everything about us. ** God loves us so much that he sent Jesus Christ to show that he forgives us for whatever we've done before and that he wants us to be obedient and love each other so we can be happy
